NPA+ NEWSLETTER #3

November 2024

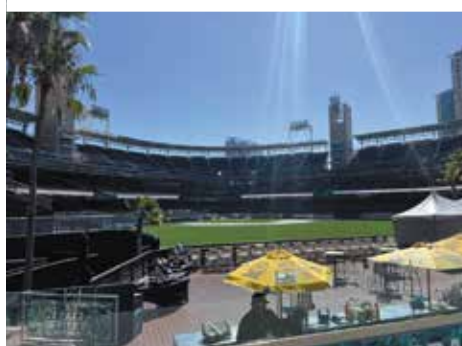

On September 24th, 2024, NPA+ attended the 3rd Annual Innovation Day celebrating the regions top tech, life science, defense and customer companies hosted by Connect, which took place at Petco Park in San Diego, CA. The event was a fantastic opportunity for NPA+ to get its message out to investors as well as gauge interest in our product.

CEO Ronnie Coluzzi attended Innovation Day on behalf of NPA+, and he felt it was a resounding success. Speaking on the conference, he had this to say:

"Attending Innovation Day was a fantastic opportunity for Next Professional Athlete to get in front of Investors and other vendors who were interested in joining my Sports Recruiting Network. Being able to present what NPA+ has to offer in the right field stands of the San Diego Padres Major League Baseball Stadium was very special to me. The Padres Stadium was a perfect place to showcase what I love doing the most and that's utilizing my Marketing and Networking abilities to help athletes grow in the world of sports."

“It was not long into the event when someone invited me to the Press Event & Launch Party to celebrate 1 Year to go to “The 2025 World Athletics Road Running Championships” that was held in San Diego, CA just two days after Innovation Day.”

“I decided to attend the event and I'm very happy I did because I was introduced to some big names in Sports Media today. The athletes and like minded people that showed up made the experience fun and memorable. The NPA+ mission is to connect athletes and coaches with the world's sports products and services to help launch their recruiting journey.”

“Here at NPA+, we know that it takes more than a little hard work to find success in this world. That's why we're committed to helping athletes succeed in the world of sports, in whatever form that may take.”

But we can't do it alone

“Connect's 2024 Innovation Day event served as a fantastic opportunity for us to grow and we're hoping to keep this momentum going into the new year, attracting investments and partnerships with people who have the capability to get NPA+ to the next level.”
